

Dear RwandAir Team,

As an airline that has rapidly become one of Africa's fastest-growing carriers, operating one of the youngest and most state-of-the-art fleets on the continent, you understand the power of strategic positioning . RwandAir's vision to be "the airline of obvious choice" and your commitment to "surpassing customer expectations through continuous innovation" align perfectly with the Rhythms of Return movement .

We invite you to elevate your role from transport provider to cultural architect through Rhythms of Return: The LOUD Concert, a groundbreaking movement designed to inspire the African and Caribbean diaspora to reconnect, reinvest, and return.

The RwandAir Alignment

Your Brand Stands For:

Excellence & Innovation:

One of Africa's youngest fleets, dual and triple-class configurations.

Warmth & Hospitality

Serving Customers “with warmth and efficiency”

Pan-African Vision:

Connecting 22 cities across Africa, the Middle East, Asia, and Europe

CSR Commitment:

“Remaining sensitive to the social issues affecting the communities we serve”

The Rhythms of Return movement embodies these same values—connecting the diaspora not just through miles, but through meaning.

The Signature Activation: "The Kigali Harmony Flight"

We propose a world-first experience that positions RwandAir as Africa's most innovative carrier:

The Kigali Harmony Flight:

A specially chartered RwandAir flight from London to Kigali (with onward connections) featuring:

- ✓ A live acoustic performance in the cabin by a headline artist
- ✓ Premiere screening of the Beats of Resilience documentary
- ✓ Rwandan coffee ceremony at 35,000 feet, showcasing your national hospitality
- ✓ Welcome by the "Council of Wisdom" elders upon arrival in Kigali
- ✓ Media capture for global PR and co-branded content

This activation directly supports your mission to "promote the growth of tourism in Rwanda" while positioning Kigali as the cultural gateway for the diaspora's return .
